

Blue Jackets to Host Girls Hockey Day - Feb 18

Calling all female hockey players! Join the Columbus Blue Jackets for the 3rd annual Girls Hockey Day on Monday, February 18 from 1-4pm. Girls Hockey Day will include a skill development clinic on the main ice at Nationwide Arena) featuring Lisa Chesson (OSU Alumn, 2010 Olympic Silver Medalist, and NWHL Buffalo Beaut), and Emily West, USA Hockey ADM Manager - Female Hockey, a Q&A session with members from USA Hockey and the local hockey community, and one (1) ticket for Blue Jackets vs. Lightning 7pm game (and the option to purchase additional discounted tickets).

The skill development clinic will be offered for all levels of girls (ages 6-14) with learn to play/house/rec/travel level experience. Participant must supply her own equipment. Space is limited. For more information visit www.bluejackets.com/girlshockeyday